Peter Dailey and Company in "A Country Sport."

Birst Production in This City of the Farce-Comedy "Africa."

Peter F. Dailey made his first appear. ance as a star at the Bijou Theatre yesterday in John J. McNally's farce-com- uted La P edy, "A Country Sport." Dailey is a clever fellow, who supported "Jimmy" Powers last season, and walked away with most of the honors. He was supported by Ada Lewis, May Irwin, John G. Sparks and other clever people. A re-wiew of "A Country Sport" will appear in Thursday's "Evening World." STAR THEATRE.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

"Store Acres," the unconventional play that has caused so much discussion, returned to the metropolis yesterday and began an engagement at Daly's Theatre. James A. Herne, of course, played the leading part, though it seems almost ridiculous to talk of his "playing" it, so exceedingly natural is he. The pretty story pleased the audiences immensely. Everybody wishes Herne success at this Broadway house.

vere William Haworth, Adolph Lestina, iohn Woodard, John B. Maher, Henry idanscomb, Joseph Valder, Alice Endres, Cordie Davega, Josie Bacon and little Ethel Black. The drama was very picturesquely staged.

COLUMBUS THEATRE. Neilie McHenry was the star at the Co-umbus Theatre, Harlem, and she kept ler audiences incessantly mirthful with he joily farce-comedy, "A Night at the lreus." Miss McHenry could amuse sny audience without any assistance, out she had good ald from Will West, Harry Booker, J. H. Bradbury, Robert Watson, Josephine Fenton, the De Witt workers, and several others.

melodrama called "Patent Applied," new to the city, was acted at the ple's Theatre, yesterday. Its authors it a "realistic comedy drama," lodrama. It contains many startling sations, and the "realism" is apparent all times. The members of the cast all that they could for it.

KOSTER & BIAL'S. KOSTER & BIAL'S.

The enjoyable vaudeville programme at Koster & Bial's Concert Hall yesterday attracted large audiences, afternoon and evening. Bessie Bellwood, who is going to have a highly successful season at this house, appeared, and so did Sandow, the string; the Cresendos, Mile. Sabel, the Glinserttis, the Nibios, John Starr, Wood and Shepard, Clara Qualitz, August Dewell and McBride and Goodrich. HERRMANN'S THEATRE.

HERRMANN'S THEATRE.

The French quadrille dancers from "The Black Crook" were added to the vaudeville programme at H. R. Jacobs' also appeared. Sydney Rosenfeld's amusing skitt, "The Fringe of the Froth of the Crust of Society," was again acted with Kate Davis as the "woman with a past." The programme was a very good one.

IRVING PLACE THEATRE. "Laughing Helrs," an opera-bouffe in three acts by Carl Weinberger, had its first presentation in this city yesterday at the Irving Place Theatre. It is a tuneful but rather commonplace affair, in which waltzes are more conspicuous than anything else, but it is pleasant, and the plot is the good old-timer dealing with the love affairs of an helress who wants to be loved for herself and not for her money. The opera was exceedingly well presented.

EDEN MUSEE. EDEN MUSEE.

The Christmas attractions at the Eden Musee yesterday were very numerous. The ladies and children gazed delightedly at the huge wax Santa Claus that had been erected, and from which candles ad lib. were given. The children went away happy with big parcels of candy. Maria Godoy, a new vaudeville artist, made her first appearance at this house, where she will probably become very popular.

IMPERIAL MUSIC HALL. IMPERIAL MUSIC HALL.

"Hamminstein in Distress," Frank Dupree's burlesque, was given again at the Imperial Music Hall yesterday. A number of novelties were introduced and the burlesque went remarkably well.
The vaudeville programme was contributed to by the three Hungarian sisters,
La Fouska, Joe Flynn, John W. Myers, Lucian Tatai, Daily and Devere, Booker
and Arbis and Stewart and Gillen.

HUHER'S MUSEUM.

HUBER'S MUSEUM. HUBER'S MUSEUM.

There was an enjoyable holiday bill at Huber's Museum yesterday, and the audiences were very large and appreciative. The main feature of the curio hall was the Esquimaux village from the World's Fair. Pauline Nana, the prety liontamer, made her first appearance in this country with "four big Nubian beasts of the jungle." There was a vaudeville company and a very good minstrel troupe.

TONY PASTOR'S. duction in this city yesterday at the Star Theatre. George Thatcher was the star, and he needs no introduction, his capital powers of entertainment being well known. Some admirable specialties were contributed by Otis Harlan, John A. Coleman, R. J. Jose, Hilda Hollins, Gertrude Reynolds, the dancer, and some gymnasts.

NIBLO'S GARDEN.

TONY PA TOR'S.

Tony Paint Valares, a comic-song artist from Les Ambassadeurs and L'Horloge of Paris, made her appearance yesterday at Tony Pastor's Theatre tree with a spiendid array of artists. Among them were Tony Pastor himself—bondon and Paris can give us nobody better—J. W. Kelly, McAvoy and May. Harry Carrey, the Jonghmans, the Sayund Clark and Redan.

Robert Stickney, Bimbo and Tooli, Mamie Kline and Flora de Bois.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

"The New South" was the play at the Grand Opera-House yesterday, and the pretty love story, with its melodramatic accessories, was told as conscientiously as ever. The role of the hero was played by Joseph Grismer, the forceful California actor; that of the heroine was interpreted by his wife, Phoebe Davies, who improves upon acquaintance. The company was a very good one.

In Theatre No. 1 was a comedy drama called "Christmas Eve, and in Theatre No. 2 a vaudeville company.

NEW PARK THEATRE. Our cherished old friend Lew Dock-stader, with his clever company, appeared at the New Park Theatre yesterday, and at the New Park Ineatre yesterday, and was given a hearty welcome. We have seen very little lately of Dockstader, and he is certainly as funny and as in defatigable as ever. "Delmonico's at Six " held the attention of those who visited the Park Theatre. Miss Marie Jansen, in the central character, was bright and vivacious and received several encores. The singing dancing and other special acts found favor with a large proportion of those who witnessed them.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

Evans and Hoey were just as funny as ever in "A Parlor Match" at the Grand Opera-House, where they began their farewell engagement last night. This week will be the last chance for Brooklynites in the western section of the city to see them as "Old Hoss" and "I. McCorker" in the play which has been running ten years. The plece has many new features.

BLIGHT THEATRE.

BIJOU THEATRE.

The attraction at the Bijou last night was ex-Champion John L. Suilivan as Capt. Harcourt in "The Man from Boston." The audience was given an opportunity to judge how hard John L. can hit, as in the part allotted to him he is supposed to "knock a man out." During the play an exciting football game is introduced between Yale and Harvard. Brooklynites who have never seen "the big fellow's" muscles will be given the chance this week, as the play remains chance this week, as the play remains at the Bijou until Saturday night.

EMPIRE THEATRE. "Playmates" was given at the Empire Theatre lart night. Bessie Bonehill filled the leading part, and was supported by Sig. A. Borelli, who plays the piano with both hands and feet; Charles Jerome, Seeley and West, Minnie Thurgate, the Adams sisters, the Leigh sisters and several others.

At the Novelty Theatre Edwin Arden appeared in "Eagle's Nest." Among the principal features of the show was a three-round bout between Jim Hall and Steve O'Donnell. THE CASINO.

The bill at Huber & Gebhardt's Cas-ino included Long and Edwards, the Claffin sisters, Edwards and Kernell, Lang and Rosa, Bobby Emmett, Violet St. Gaur, Minnie Schult and others.

De Wolf Hopper was greeted by large addences at both performances yesterday. He was seen in "Panjandrum," which made such a hit at the Amphion last week. Mr. Hopper is one of the most, popular comedians who visits Brooklyn, and everything he did yesterday was provocative of laughter. Excellent assistance was rendered by Della, Fox, Miss Grace Golden, Messra, Klein, Stanley, and others. Ida Fuller's dancing was a pleasing feature of the performance.
